

THE KING'S EXALTATION

Luke Chapters 23-24

READ

- Read Luke 24:1-12 and consider what lesson the Holy Spirit intends us to learn.

EXAMINE

- Resurrection Sunday has arrived! Where does this account take place, and what do you learn about the women who have gathered there (see Luke 23:55-56 and 24:10)?
- Who, obvious to the women, is not there (v 3)? What is the significance of that?
- There are “men” present (4-7) who have a message. How does Luke describe the men, and what do they say to the women?
- What do the women do in response to the message (8-10)?
- How do the apostles respond to the report the women bring, particularly Peter (11-12)?

APPLY

- Women are vital to the mission of the Lord Jesus. How does the word that women were the first to share the good news of the resurrection impact you?
- Jesus does not appear in this account, but the reminder of the words that He said really challenged the women. None of us today have physically seen the Lord Jesus, but many believe on and follow Him, trusting He is alive. How do people get this confidence? How can we encourage others to believe?
- Doubts often plague the followers of Jesus, much as the disciples thought the women’s report an “idle tale.” How can we minister to those who struggle with doubts? What biblical counsel has helped you when you’ve dealt before with spiritual doubts?
- Jesus Christ is Risen! How do these words challenge you and influence your everyday life?

PRAY
